NORTH JACKSON

Feb. 13.—Mrs. Almira Russell Witherspoon died Feb. 12 at her home south of the village after a sickness of nearly four months. Funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 1:30 eastern time from the Christian church, where she has been a member for years, by Rev. Hoskins. Burial in the village cemetery. She leaves her husband, Samuel Witherspoon, two sons and one daughter, Mrs. Elmer Stroup, 3 grandsons, 3 brothers, Monroe of Youngstown, Clark and Newton of this place, besides many other relatives and friends.

Word was received here today by James Calhoun of the death of Isaac Dunsman, a brother-in-law, in Cleveland.

Three funerals were held here last Saturday.

Mrs. Clara Russell is entertaining a friend from Orrville.

Mrs. Lillie Eckenrode spent several days in Warren with her daughter who is sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Witherspoon and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Johnson of Warren spent Sunday here.

Mrs. Ephraim Klingeman has returned from the hospital.

Dale Kimmel moved his family into the Miller house last week.

Miss Amanda Leonard of Youngstown was here Saturday.

Dr. W. N. Hole of Alliance was called here Tuesday to see Mrs. Louisa Witherspoon who is in a serious condition.

Mrs. Julia Quackenbush is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Pearl Witherspoon and daughter are staying some time with Will Witherspoon.

H. H. Lynn's condition is improving.

Mrs. John Cole is visiting in Alliance.

Mr. Hayden has bought a new team of horses.

Miss Allen, who made her home with her nephew, L. C. McCorkle, died at his home Thursday morning after ten days' sickness with pneumonia.

She was a member of the M. E. Church. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Cope Saturday with burial in the village cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah Leonard, who was sick several months, died last Wednesday and funeral services were held at the North church Saturday conducted by Rev. Kendig. She leaves her husband and one daughter, Mrs. David Hyle's. Remains were placed in the vault.

The ladies of North Jackson Auxiliary of the Red Cross have been as busy as honey bees gathering honey for a cold winter. From Jan. 25 to Feb. 8 they made and sent to Mahoning Chapter 27 pairs of hospital shirts, 13 helmets, 7 pairs socks, 5 sweaters. Meetings are held every Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Friend Jones and every woman who can is urged to be present and assist in the good work being done. Officers and members are taking a lively interest in looking after the interests of our soldier boys and they are anxious to greatly increase the membership of the organization. The men of the community are thanked most heartily for the active interest taken and assistance given the organization.

Robert Russell, was born in Jackson township May 14, 1848, died Feb. 6. He was a son of the late James and Catherine Russell. Having received his education at the district and select schools, he taught school for a number of years. He was married May 16, 1868, to Catherine Ebert, and began housekeeping east of the village, on the farm now owned by Chas. Sinn. From there he moved to Champion where he resided a few years. While living there his home, with all its contents was burned, and he soon returned to Jackson and located on a small farm south of the village where he spent the remainder of his years farming and teaching school. For a number of years he was Justice of the Peace and was possessed with a mind that decided for peace and right. He was united with the Christian church in young manhood and was faithful to his trust at all times. His wife died about six months ago. He leaves two sons, Frank of Cleveland and Clyde, living on the home place; also three brothers, Clark and Newton of North Jackson and M. J. living in Youngstown, and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Witherspoon, of North Jackson. There are three grandchildren.

Worst Winter in Years
Snow, wind and extreme cold caused more colds this winter than in years. Foley's Honey and Tar proved its worth in thousands of homes. Mrs. Edward Strevy, R. 37, Clinton, O., says: "I think Foley's Honey and Tar is the only medicine for coughs and colds and recommend it highly." Fine for children. F. A. Morris-adv.

BASKING IN FLORIDA SUNSHINE

Geo. F. Lynn of Cleveland, Formerly of Canfield, Spending the Winter Most Enjoyably.

Lake North, Fla., Feb. 8, 1918.

Editor Dispatch:—Some of my friends requested me to write them what kind of a winter resort section south-eastern Florida is as compared with the winter of our north.

As many of my friends are Dispatch readers, thought if the editor considered my impressions interesting one letter would suffice for all. Of course it is the editor's duty as his privilege to publish only news of general interest.

The winter paper basket is handy. Chuck it in if it thought best.

I arrived in the village of Lake North Jan. 20 to spend the balance of the winter. It is 1,400 miles south of Cleveland, 313 miles south of Jacksonville and six miles south of Palm Beach. When I left Cleveland it was near zero weather. On arrival here the weather was like our warm May days in Ohio, men and women were bathing and people sitting around in the park, some without a coat on in shirtwaists, men walking about in linen suits, women in summer attire.

To pass out of severe cold weather as I left in Ohio and into such a delightful climate seemed almost incredible. I found people wintering here from Montana, Wisconsin, Michigan, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, Pennsylvania, New York, North and South Dakota. One bunch from North Dakota drove through camping on the way, about 3000 miles, yes, in a Ford. They are typical westerners. They are now busy planting 12 acres in cabbage. Expect to market this in time to drive back and plant spring wheat. Some system! They are hustlers and have future success ahead of them. The evidence that this is a choice spot is that many of these people have been coming to this locality from 2 to 5 years. One aged migratory bird whose home is in Iowa, told me he had spent a number of winters in California and the climate was so far inferior as a winter resort to this that there was no comparison. It is colder on the west coast and some cooler at Miami, although 63 miles farther south than Lake North. I wondered why this was so. It was explained to me this way. The map of Florida shows the Palm Beach county, this spot bulges out farther east into the ocean than any part of the state. The Gulf Stream bends in toward Florida at this part of the state, coming within 3 miles of shore. There seems little doubt that the close proximity of the gulf stream to the cause of the delightful temperature here. The balmy salt water air that comes off the ocean passing over the gulf stream is most delightful. Lake North has a population of about 400—just a little country village by the sea. It has a fine bathing beach. It is only 5 years old, is growing and has evidences of future growth to a town of some pretensions.

Living cost is moderate, rooms can be had in private homes at from $4 to $7.00 per week. Good plain meals 25 to 35c. After being in close touch with the great activity of Cleveland for more than 20 years it seems dull and quiet to me, but one can help out in that case. Palm Beach is 6 miles north, jitney buses running every hour, fare 25c. We can take a bus to Palm Beach where you can see a bunch of women promenading in the hotel lobbies showing their glad rags, and on the beaches showing their shapes. There is always something to look at. Palm Beach is a pretty little city, having a population of 4,000 in census of 1915. The boulevards here are the finest I ever saw. Without these improved roads it would be impossible to get through the sand. How they ever pay for them is a problem. I took an auto ride from Palm Beach to Miami, a distance of 70 miles, spending a few days in Miami. The ride was delightful, the road being like a floor. The scenery nothing but tropical scrub growth that nothing but a goat could eat and it would be hard on the goat. The finest climate in the U. S., but nothing else. I was delighted with Miami. It is worth a write up but would lengthen this letter too much. We are about 40 miles from the center of the everglade district. I intend visiting it before leaving this vicinity.

Respectfully,
GEO. F. LYNN.

The hardy will triumph, but one of the right things in the world is to make the loser realize it.

Say you saw it advertised in the Dispatch.

SIMPLE, YET ELABORATE.

Though its lines are simple as simple can be, this distinctive afternoon gown of blue silk is charmingly elaborate. The reason is found in the rich embroidery with which the gown is trimmed. The embroidery is done in gay, though harmonizing, tones of blue, green, yellow and red silk. It outlines the deep armholes and appears again on the cuffs, besides being used for a large irregular patch on each side panel. A bead fringe in matching colors falls from the front at the waist-line.

Five Foodless Years.

Just as the ranchman's horse had learned to get along without eating, he unfortunately "up and died." All animal organisms would doubtless ultimately meet a similar fate, but certain small beetles in the larval stage have recently lived without food for something over five years. The experimenter, Prof. J. E. Wodessalek of the University of Idaho, tells in Science (New York) how a number of specimens were placed in sterilized vials to find out how long they could exist without food. Newly hatched larvae lived over four months without ever having eaten. The others resisted death for periods varying with their size and age, the last one only succumbing after five years, one month and twenty-nine days of starvation. The larvae dwindle in bulk, but are ready to eat at the end of their fast, and then grow again to normal size.

Fewer Lobster Fishermen.

An Augusta (Me.) correspondent says that seven hundred fewer fishermen renewed their licenses to catch lobsters this year than last year, this falling off being due to various causes. Thus far this year Oscar H. Dunbar, the commissioner of sea and shore fisheries, has received the applications from 3,193 men who wish to fish the seas. The high cost of the lumber, lath and twine that go into the traps, together with the increased price of gasoline, has caused many of the fishermen to go out of the business.

Prevent Silver From Tarnishing.

To prevent silverware from tarnishing, first warm the pieces to be treated, then paint them over with a thin solution of collodion in alcohol, using a wide, soft brush.

This will not harm silverware in the least, and will save lots of hard labor trying to keep it clean.

Cider Eggnog.

This old-fashioned beverage has a place in the modern cold-weather dietary. To make it, separate the yolks and whites of six eggs in two bowls. To each yolk add a tablespoonful of granulated sugar, beat the yolks and sugar to a foam, then flavor with a little grated nutmeg, stirring it well through the mixture, then add a half-pint of sweet hot cider to each egg, beat it well through and pour it into a hot punch bowl. Beat the whites of the eggs to a stiff froth with a little sugar and cover the surface of the punch. Serve in cups.

Peanut-Butter Sausages.

Take one-quarter cupful of soft sifted bread-crumbs, three-quarters cupful of cream of wheat, one cupful of peanut butter, one egg beaten light, one-half teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful sage, one-half teaspoonful thyme and one-quarter teaspoonful of pepper. Mix together well, add beaten egg, form into sausages. Place on pan in which a teaspoonful of drippings or oleomargarine has been melted, bake about twenty minutes. Serve with bananas cut in halves, lengthwise and sauted in hot butter.

Judging by the looks of some husbands, it would seem that their wives married them merely to keep out of the spinster class.

The average wife can outdo an experienced lawyer when it comes to cross-questioning her husband on his return about 2 a. m.

Ambition is responsible for many of life's failures. The average man would rather wobble around in a big place than fill a small one well.

It is a woman's privilege to wear short-sleeved dresses if she wants to. The Constitution of the United States says that the right to bear arms shall not be infringed.

ECONOMICAL DISHES.

To make a small amount of meat go a good ways, try

English Hash.—Put three tablespoonfuls of olive oil in a frying pan, when very hot add a half pound of chopped beef and stir it with a fork until it is well seared, then add three cupfuls of boiled rice, one small onion chopped, a teaspoonful of salt and a fourth of a teaspoonful of paprika, with a few dashes of cayenne. Cook until the meat is well done, stirring all the time. Serve at once.

Buckwheat Gems.—Beat one egg, add a half cupful of sugar and three tablespoonfuls of melted shortening. Add a cupful of milk and a cupful of buckwheat, a little at a time, until well mixed, then add a half cupful of wheat flour, into which has been sifted one and a half teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of salt. Bake in gem pans. These may be split and served with honey or maple syrup.

Apples Stuffed With Rice.—Core six red apples and fill the centers with boiled rice mixed with cinnamon and sugar. Put in a pan and add a little water and bake as usual. Serve hot with cream.

Washington Salmon Salad.—Mix together one and a half cupfuls of flaked salmon, half a cupful of celery cut fine, two tablespoonfuls of chopped green peppers, one small onion, minced, and mayonnaise to moisten, with salt and pepper to season. Garnish with slices of tomatoes. Arrange on a bed of lettuce and garnish with mayonnaise.

Peanut Rice Salad.—Wash three tablespoonfuls of rice and cook ten minutes in boiling salted water. Drain and cover with a cupful of orange juice and cook in a double boiler until tender. Cool, mix with a half cupful of finely chopped peanuts, make into balls as little cream cheese, serve as a garnish on lettuce.

Three Ice Creams.—Take three oranges, three lemons and three bananas, mash the bananas and use the juice of the other fruit, put all together, add three cupfuls of sugar and three of water, cooked together for ten minutes, and cooled and let stand an hour. Add a half pint of cream and freeze as usual.
